

Christine L. John

*Diversity Lead, Bruce Power
Canadian Affairs Chair, NA-YGN*

Christine John is the Canadian Affairs Chair of the North American – Young Generation in Nuclear (NA-YGN) and Chair of the Bruce Chapter. In these roles, Christine works to increase Canadian involvement in YGN activities both in Canada and the US. She is working with interested members in starting up a number of new chapters in Canada as well as organizing some regional chapter events in the coming year.

Christine was recently promoted into the role of Diversity Lead at Bruce Power where she is responsible for reporting on Bruce Power's demographics and building strategies for reducing gaps in the company's workforce. Ultimately, she is working on leading change at Bruce Power by way of creating an inclusive working environment that welcomes diversity. Prior to this role, Christine was the Team Leader of Payroll at Bruce Power where she worked with a team of 12 to ensure timely and accurate pay for up to 5,000 employees.

Christine received her Bachelor's in Political Science from the University of Windsor in 1997 and graduated from the University of Phoenix Online with her MBA in 2005.
